Parergon publishes articles on all aspects of medieval and early modern literature, history and culture. Articles offered for publication should be accompanied by a compact disk. Electronic copy may also be sent as an email attachment. Articles, which will be submitted to referees, should normally be no longer than 8000 words in length and should observe the conventions of the MHRA Style Book (5th ed., 1996). Footnotes should be kept to a reasonable proportion of the whole. Articles should be sent to the Editor. Offers to review books should be sent to the Reviews Editor. Enquiries for membership of the Association should be addressed to the Treasurer.

Copyright owners retain copyright of their work and may use their own work in other publications although we ask that Parergon be acknowledged as the original place of publication.

Parergon Editors' Foreword

The articles in Houses, Households and Families in Medieval and Early Modern Europe have grown from papers originally presented at the Perth Medieval and Renaissance Group Symposium, August 2005. We thank Philippa Maddern for her initial organisation of this collection and steady work in shepherding the authors towards completion and revision of their articles. Thanks are also due to the expert referees who reported independently to Parergon on submissions, and to Megan McKinlay for careful and prompt copy editing.
