Parergon publishes articles on all aspects of medieval and early modern literature, history and culture. Articles offered for publication should be accompanied by a floppy or compact disk in either PC or Macintosh format. Electronic copy may also be sent as an email attachment. Articles, which will be submitted to referees, should normally be no longer than 8000 words in length and should observe the conventions of the MHRA Style Book (5th ed., 1996). Footnotes should be kept to a reasonable proportion of the whole. Articles should be sent to the Editor. Offers to review books should be sent to the Reviews Editor. Enquiries for membership of the Association should be addressed to the Treasurer.

Copyright owners retain copyright of their work and may use their own work in other publications although we ask that Parergon be acknowledged as the original place of publication.

For further details of recent issues of Parergon, visit our website: <http://www.parergon.arts.uwa.edu.au/>

Parergon is also available in electronic form as part of Project Muse (from 2005) and Australian Public Affairs – Full Text (from 1994).
